Report of the Superintendent

To the School Board and the Citizens of the School District

FOREWORD

Present indications are that more time will be given to education in legislative halls during the current session at both national and state levels than at any other time in the history of our country. Without question, the unprecedented tremendous volume of lip-service given to education by laymen as well as by professionals in the last decade has had much to do in bringing this about.

What is going to be interesting to watch now, will be the educational developments during the next ten years. As is so very well known, for an extended period of time much has been heard about what should be taught, how it should be taught, and the necessity of a relatively large unit if it is to be done at all effectively. It has long since been discovered, also, that to convert many of the theories advanced into action that it invariably results in one thing. It costs more money. Hence the legislator is appealed to for help. For, generally speaking, he is not consulted relative to subject matter content or the most effective way to get it across to the pupil. Generally speaking, he is approached only after it is realized that additional funds will have to be forthcoming if the desired objectives are to be reached.

Of perhaps even greater significance than the educational developments during the next decade, will be the outcomes achieved as a result of what is done. Possibly, more conclusive evidence will be available then to substantiate the broadly accepted belief at the present time, that with the organization into larger units and the spending of more money a superior education follows. It is suspected that it may still be difficult to really determine this point. For, as has been true since our schools were first instituted a long time ago, it is not so much what is taught or how it is taught as it is what the learner does with it after he gets it.

Teacher

With little, if any, change in the shortage of teachers, particularly elementary, we are very fortunate to have an experienced teacher in the self-contained multi-graded classroom at the Cone School. Mrs. Elizabeth C. Goodwin, who received her training at Lyndon Teachers College, Lyndonville, Vermont, has taught previously outside as well as inside the state.

School Nurse -- Health

As has been cited again and again the importance of the work done by the school nurse in maintaining overall good health contributes very materially to the effectiveness of the academic work done and to a happy and successful life of the pupils in our schools. The comprehensive program conducted includes clinics, immunizations, physical examinations, frequent checkups on height, weight, hearing, and eyesight, and continuous supervision of general health.

As much as these services contribute to what is accomplished healthwise in our schools, however, one of the utmost vital importance -- dental care -- still urgently needs to be included. A dental clinic conducted once or twice a week throughout the entire school year is most urgently needed if there is to be any semblance to what is done in this area in most schools up and down the state.

Maintenance

With the extensive renovations made at the Cone School a year ago and the closing of the Church School this year, outside of boarding-up the windows at the latter school such other maintenance work as was done has been minor in nature.

Sale Of Buildings

With the authorization received at the last district meeting, and due to up-keep and insurance costs, the School Board sold the South Columbia and Grand Division School Buildings.

On Closing The Cone School

Although it is fully realized that extensive renovations were completed only a year ago at the Cone School Building, with the advantages which can be gained it is believed best to close the school and to transport the pupils to Colebrook.

The last census taken shows that there would be only in the vicinity of twenty pupils each year for the next five years even with five grades in the school. With this number of grades in a single classroom it is not possible for a teacher to give the same amount of individual help to a pupil that can be done in a single grade class. In working with much larger groups, too, at the same grade level, will help materially in arousing more interest and in stimulating greater effort on the part of the pupil.

Of great help to the pupil, likewise, is the continuity in subject matter content and method of presentation as progress is made through the successive grades. It will be possible, also, to receive more music instruction, and to have both milk to drink and a hot lunch at a minimum cost.

Enrollment and Attendance

As would be expected with only the one school open, the number enrolled in school within the district is small. At the time of this writing this total is 26 as compared to 35 a year ago when the Church School was open and to 62, 65, and 59 for the next respective previous three years when the Grand Division was also open. The average percentage of attendance for the two schools open last year was 96.84 with no tardinesses reported.

By the same token that the number of pupils enrolled in school within the district decreased with the closing of a building, the number enrolled outside the district increased accordingly. The number of elementary tuition pupils is now 57 in comparison to 51 last year and to 45, 35, 39, 30, and 36 during the respective five preceding years. The number of high school tuition pupils is 35 as compared to 25 a year ago, and to 29, 25, 28, 20, and 21 for the respective five preceding years to last year.

Notes On The Budget

On the basis of conducting no schools within the district, the School Board's budget for 1965 - 66 is $50,170.00 in comparison to $47,114.00 for the current year. This amount is decreased by an estimated income of $19,610.00 which leaves a balance of $30,560.00 to be raised by taxes by the town as compared to the estimated $27,114.00 for this year. As will be found upon examination of the budget breakdown printed on subsequent pages in this report, increased tuition costs, for the most part explain the increase in the budget.

Conclusion

May I again express my deep appreciation to the members of the School Board, parents, teachers, and citizens for all the assistance and cooperation received in our working together during the past several years in a joint effort to provide and maintain high standards in our schools.

Respectfully submitted,

ERNEST B. DANA
Superintendent of Schools
